

Your spark is what started your riding fire – the reason you ride or want to start riding. That feeling, moment or person who ignited your passion for the road. Connecting with other riders shares your spark and enthusiasm for the sport. As you begin building relationships, ask what started others on their riding journey and what continues to fuel their passion today.

Please share your spark with us.